Is your pie the upper crust?

Is your apple pie the pick of the crop? Or is it your steak and kidney that beats the best of them?

If you, or someone in your family, is a master pie-maker, Brockleby's Farm Shop, of Asfordby Hill, Melton, wants to hear from you.

Brockleby's, bakers of top quality pies, is challenging Leicestershire folk to beat them at their own game and enter a pie-making competition.

There are three prizes of cash to spend at Brockleby's Farm Shop up for grabs for the winners of the competition's three categories – best sweet pie, best savoury cold pie and best savoury hot pie.

Brockleby's own master pie-maker Suzy Jones will be judging the competition. She will be looking for the use of locally produced ingredients, a tempting appearance and, of course, great taste.

Suzy's no stranger to success herself – Brockleby's Farm Shop has won several awards for its pies since it opened in Asfordby Hill two years ago.

To enter Brockleby's pie competition, pop into the shop in Asfordby Hill for an application form, ring on 01664 813200 or email ian.jalland@btconnect.com
