

Free cheese and wine at farm shop

Do you know your mild and creamy from your ripe and piquant? Can you taste the damsons, gooseberries or chocolate in a glass of organic vino?

Anyone who'd like to learn more about regional cheese and wine – or anyone who simply likes free drinks and nibbles – is invited to a special event at a local farm shop next month.

Brockleby's annual Cheese and Wine Party will be held on Thursday, September 11, from 7pm to 9pm at the shop in Asfordby Hill, Melton Mowbray, next to the Grange Garden Centre.

Local producers and cheese experts will be on hand to answer questions about British cheeses and regional and organic wines.

Visitors will be able to taste the only Red Leicester made in Leicestershire, the wonderfully mild and creamy Quenby Stilton, as well as a huge range of other delicious cheeses from local dairies.

Brockleby's owner Ian Jalland will also be serving a range of fine organic wines and encouraging visitors to taste and try.

The farm shop will be open on the night for anyone who would like to do some shopping and half-cases of organic wine will be sold at VAT-free prices.

Entry is free. Anyone wishing to attend the party should register their interest by calling the shop on 01664 813200.

This event has been moved from an earlier scheduled date of Thursday, August 7.

For further press information and high res pictures, contact Sarah Hall on 07963 269992 or hall.sarah2@sky.com